

300th Birth Anniversary of Lokmata Ahilyabai Holkar Celebrated at SSCTU, Mulugu

Sammakka Sarakka Central Tribal University, Mulugu, celebrated the 300th birth anniversary of Lokmata Ahilyabai Holkar on February 25, 2025, honouring her legacy as a visionary ruler, administrator, and patron of dharma and culture. Faculty, students, and non-teaching staff participated in the event, which highlighted her contributions to social welfare, temple restoration, and just governance. Dr. Vamshikrishna Reddy, OSD, joined the celebration online and addressed the gathering, speaking on the relevance of commemorating unsung heroes in Indian history and the need to integrate their stories into academic discourse. The program served as an inspiring reminder of Ahilyabai Holkar's enduring legacy and her model of ethical leadership.
