

Janjatiya Gaurav Divas Celebrated at SSCTU, Mulugu

Janjatiya Gaurav Divas (National Tribal Day) was celebrated with grandeur at Sammakka Sarakka Central Tribal University, Mulugu, on November 15, 2024, as part of the official celebrations organized by the Government of Telangana. The event commemorated the birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda and paid tribute to the immense contributions of tribal communities to the nation's history and culture. The celebration was attended by several dignitaries, including the Member of Parliament, the District Collector, and the Principal Secretary of the Tribal Welfare Department. Faculty and students of SSCTU participated in the event, which featured inspiring speeches, cultural performances, and presentations that highlighted the richness and resilience of tribal heritage. The occasion served as a meaningful reminder of the importance of preserving and promoting tribal identities within the broader narrative of the nation.
