

National Constitution Day Observed at SSCTU, Mulugu

National Constitution Day was observed at Sammakka Sarakka Central Tribal University, Mulugu, on November 26, 2024, to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution. Conducted by the faculty and staff of SSCTU, the event aimed to instill constitutional values and raise awareness about the significance of the Indian Constitution. The Preamble was read collectively by faculty and students, followed by a brief discussion on the vision of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and the foundational principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. The observance fostered a sense of civic responsibility and respect for democratic ideals among the university community.
